Foreword

The 1983-84 yearbook staff takes pride in presenting this edition of the Spelman College Reflections.

It is an attempt to capture time in a frame, sentence, or paragraph with the hope that future reflection will restore pleasant memories. Our sincere hope is that this edition will become one of your most treasured possessions and that in the future, it will provide you with many memories of in the future, it will provide you with many memories of your college years. As you turn the following pages, we anticipate your enjoyment of the viewing as we enjoyed the creation.

The 1983-84 Staff
Meryl J. Johnson, Editor-in-chief

A legacy lives within the gates of Spelman College.

Spelman College is the first of its kind for Black women in this country. It is a noble and rich heritage—an achievement in the annals of American womanhood. It is a tradition of intellectual excellence.

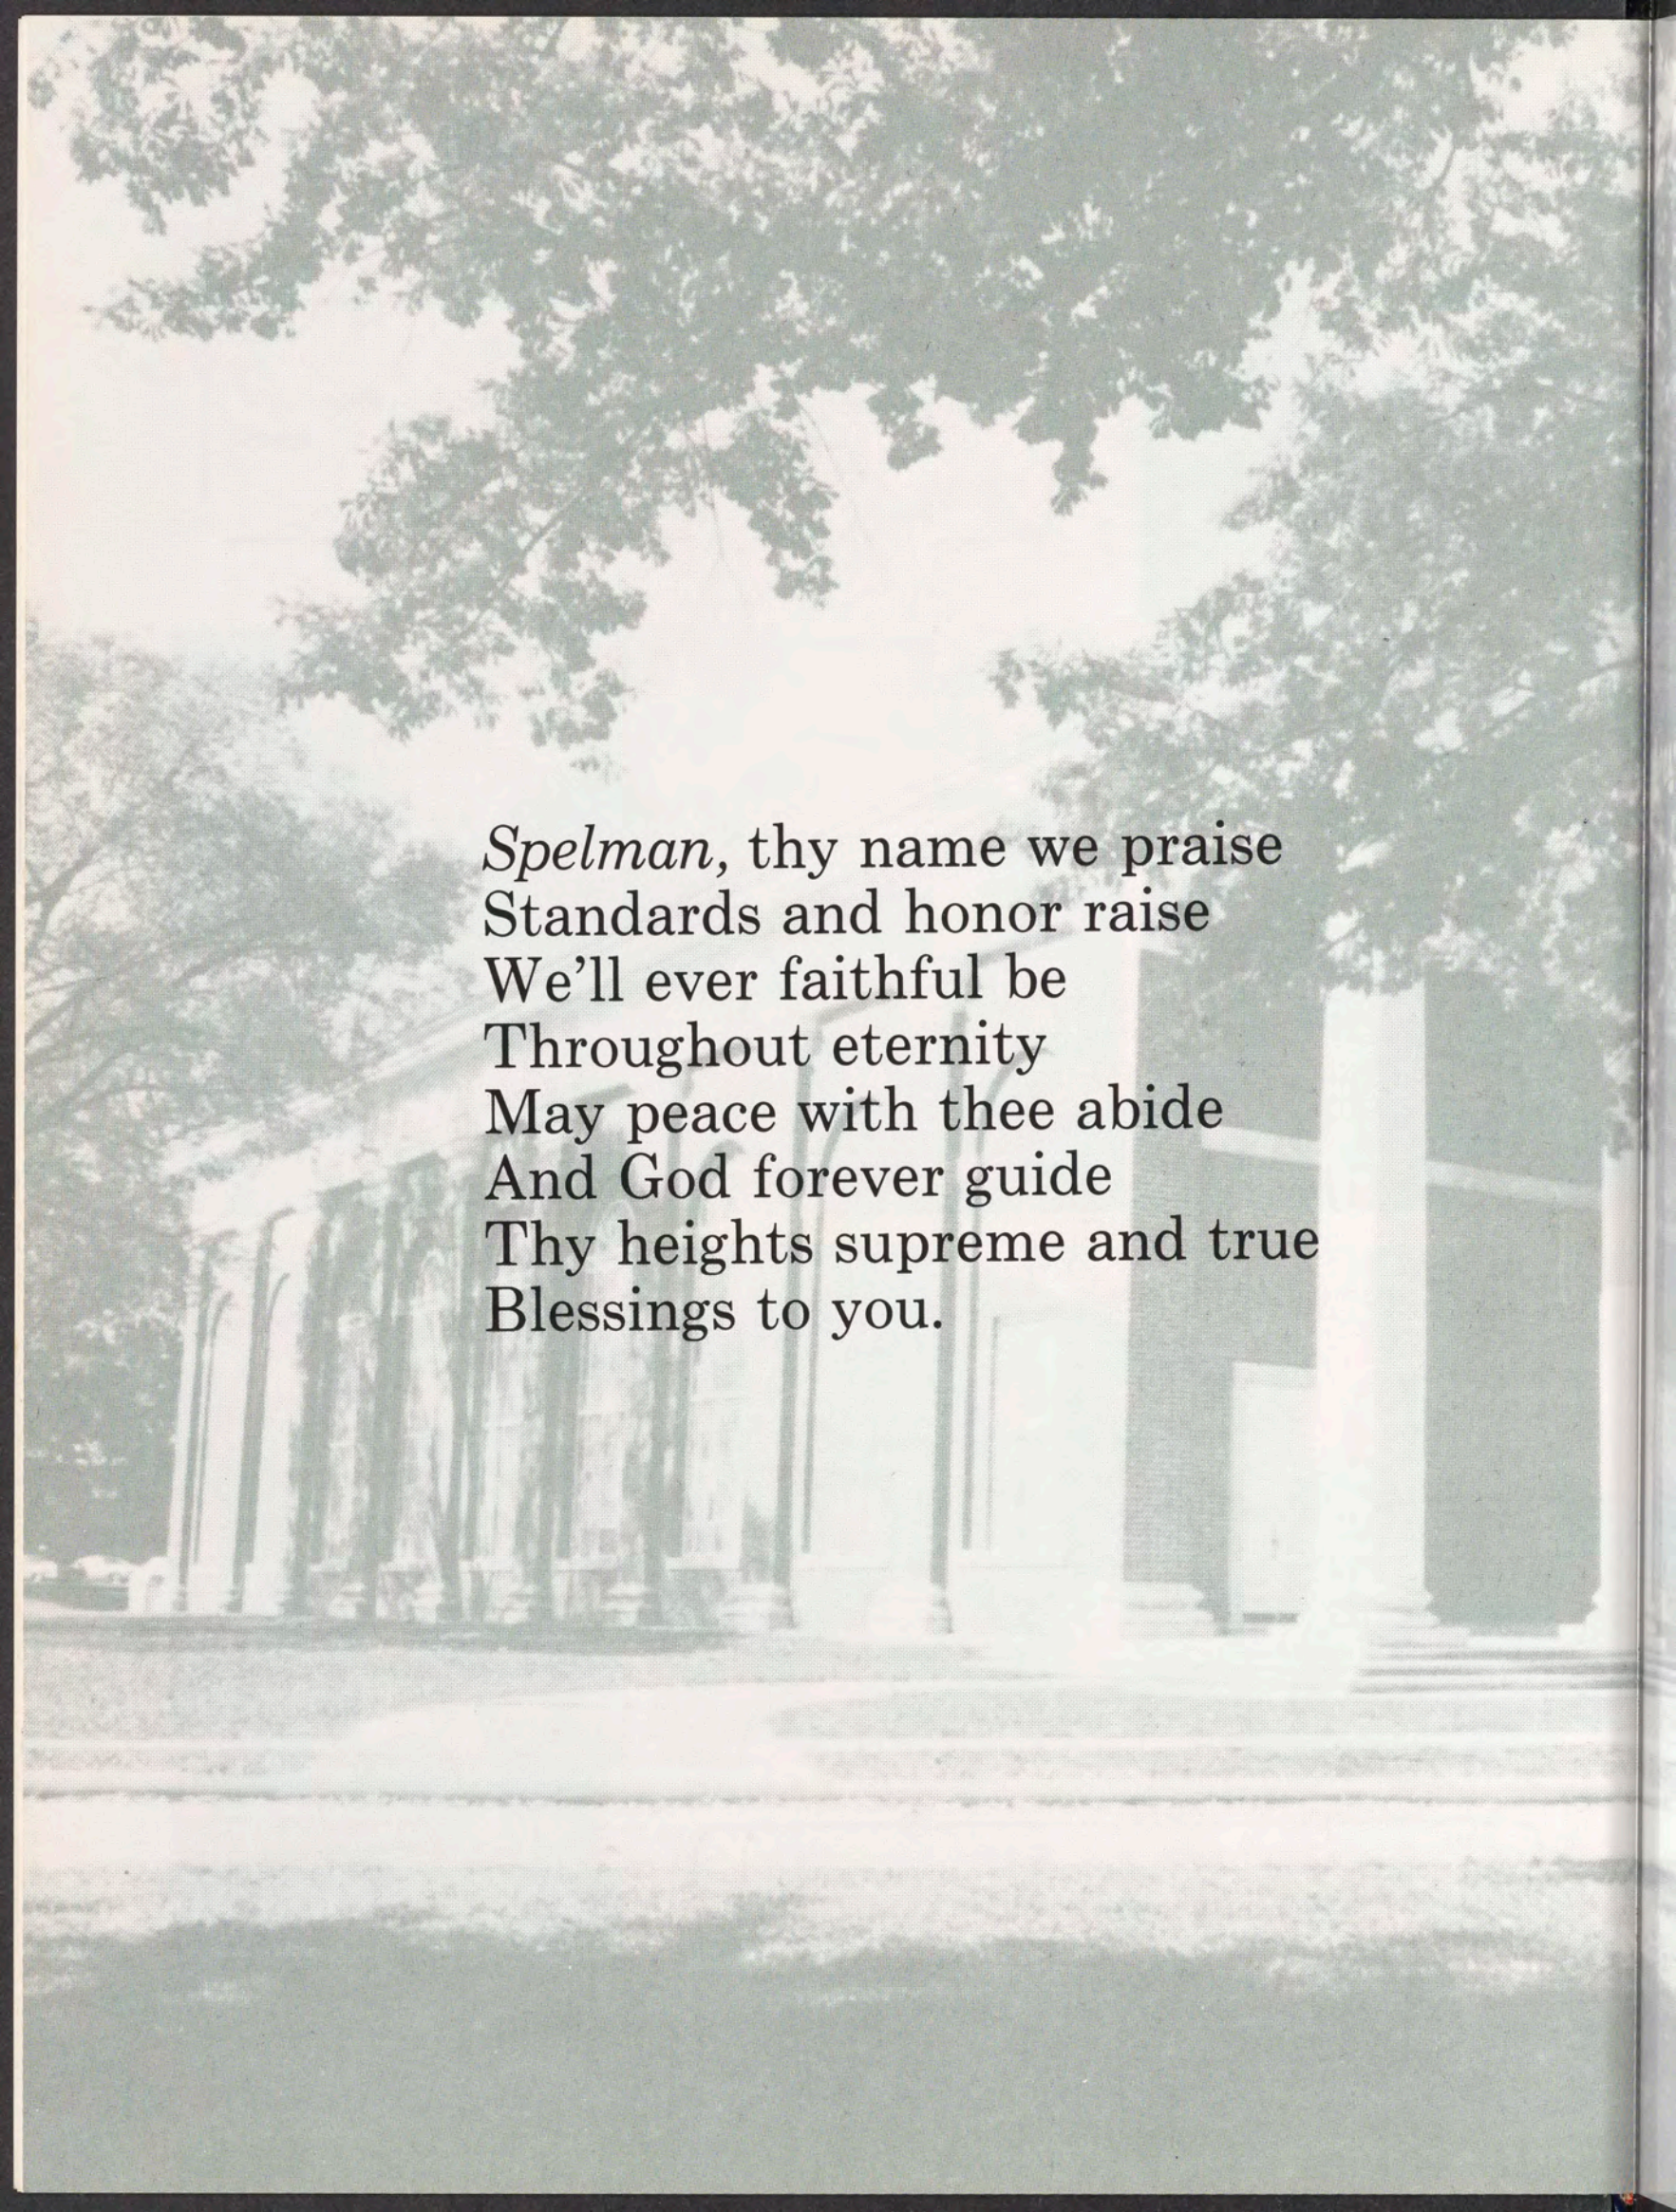

The women of Spelman know history, especially their own.

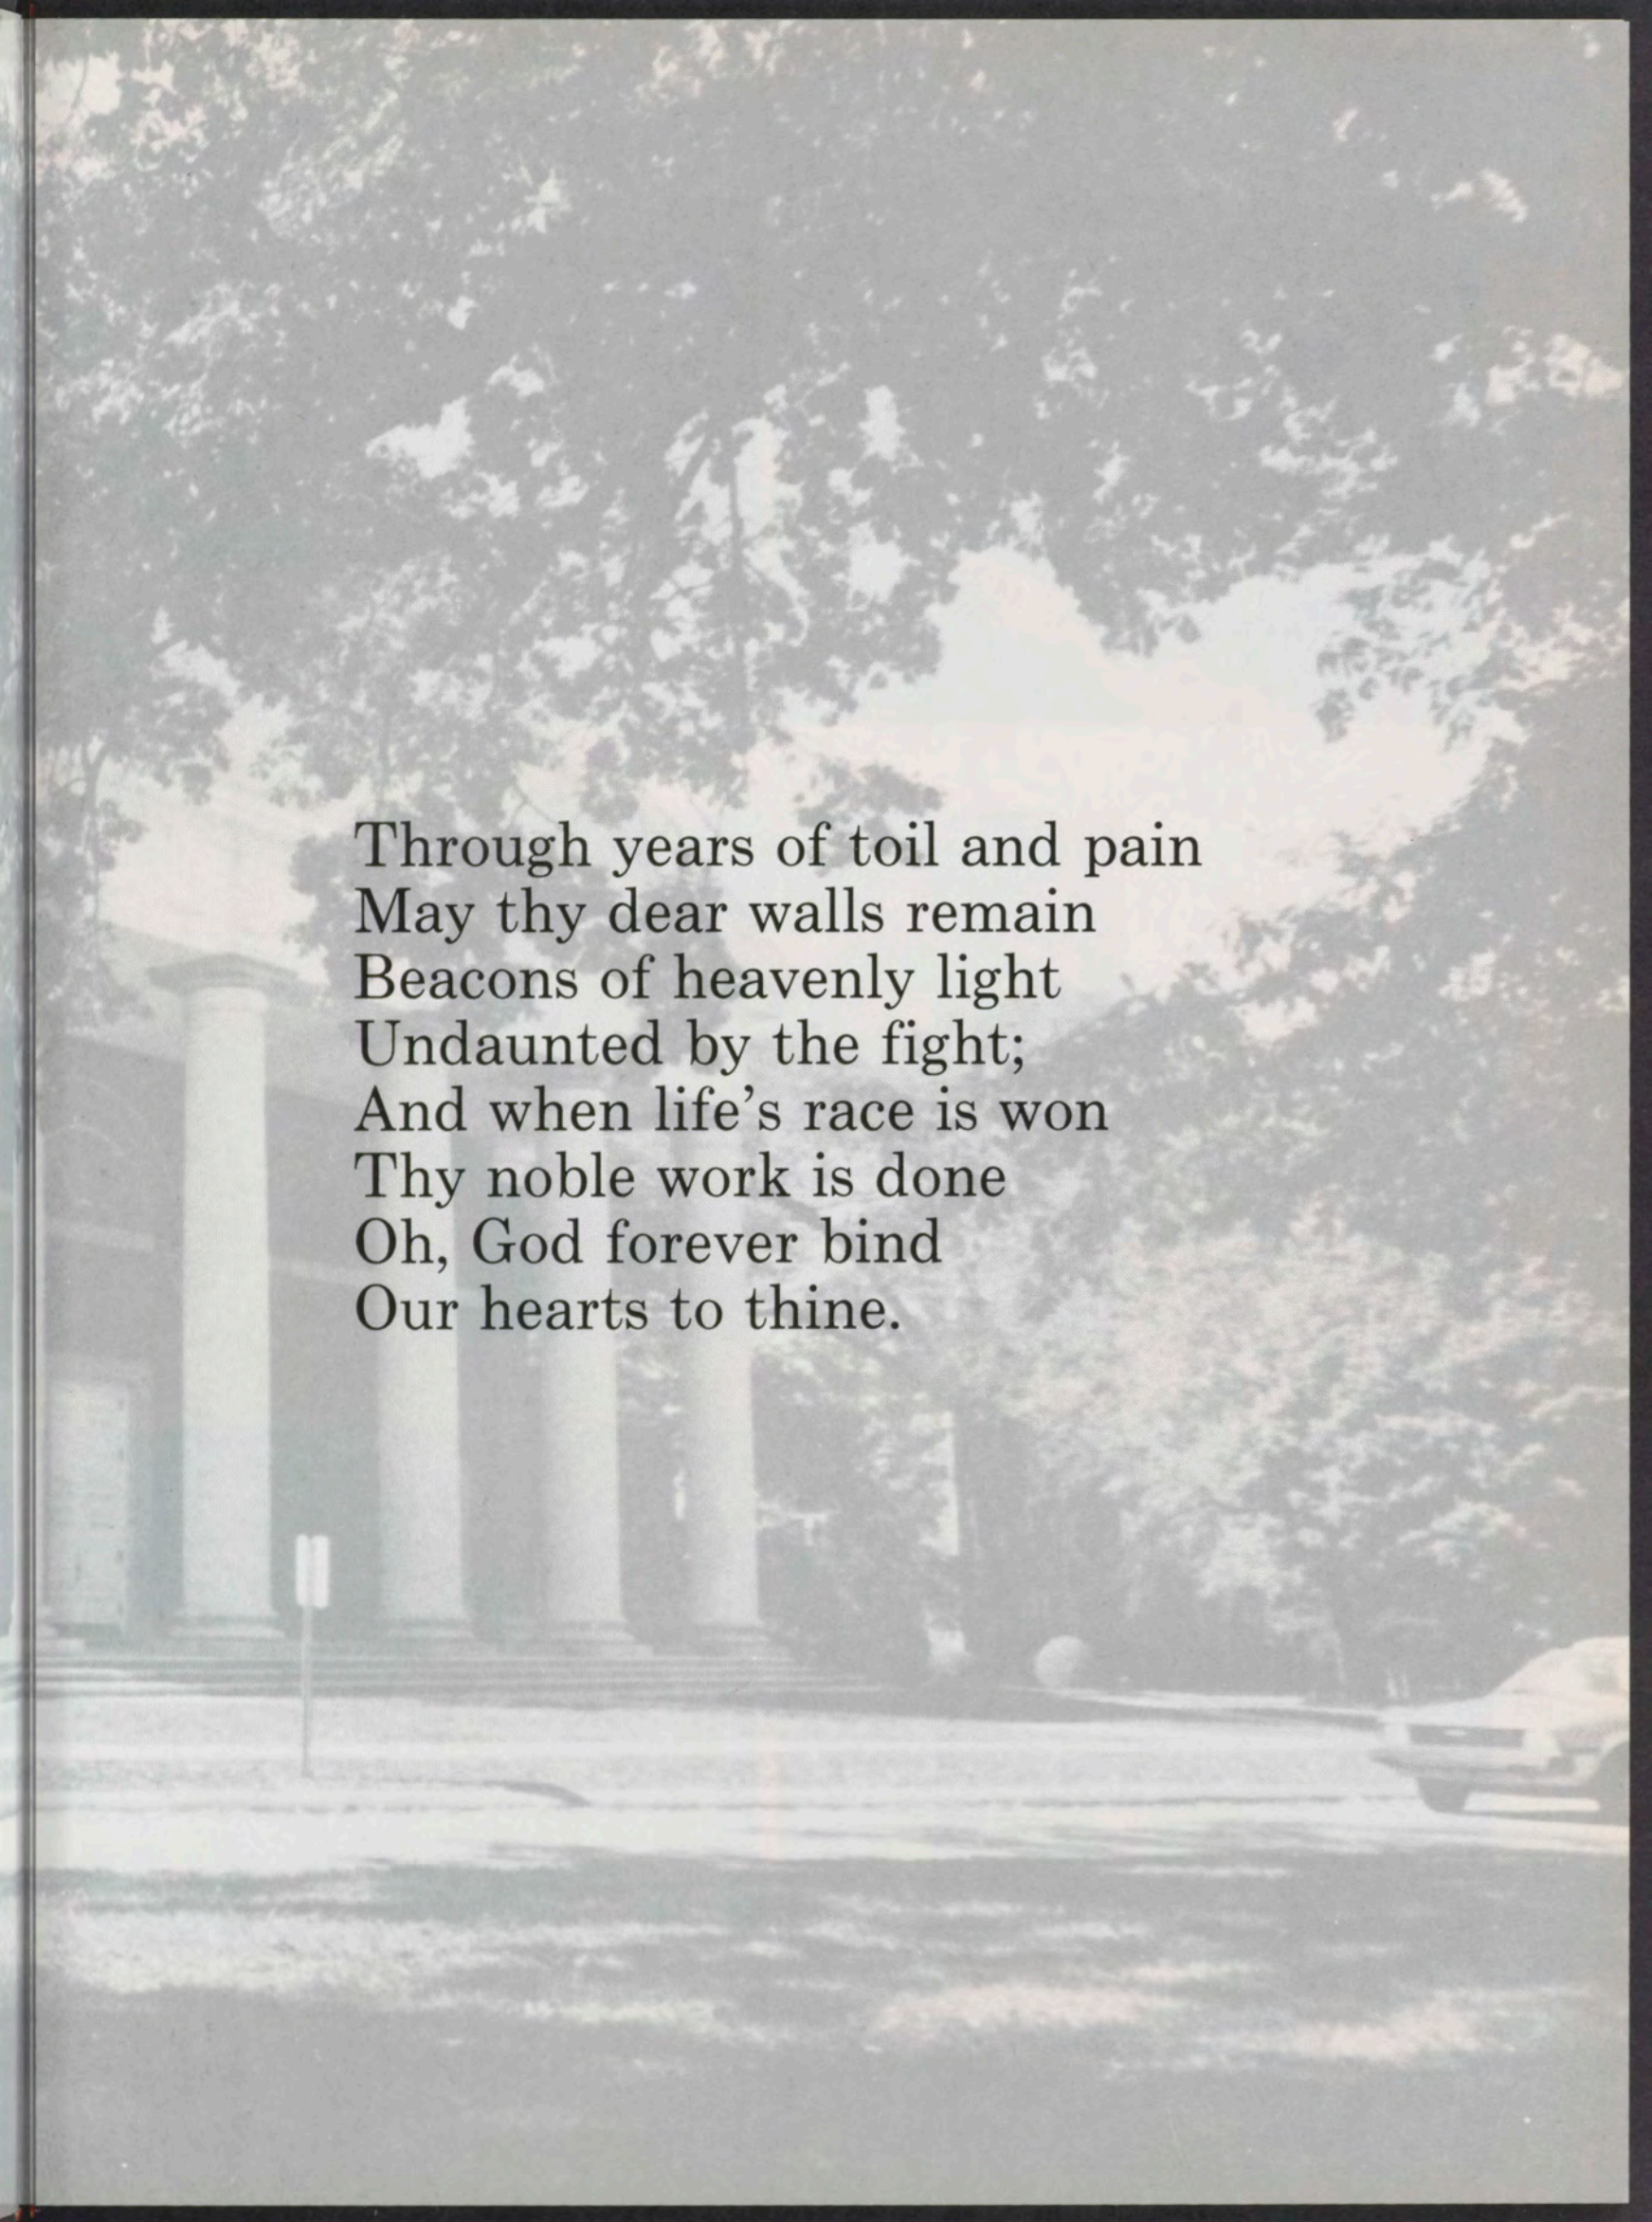

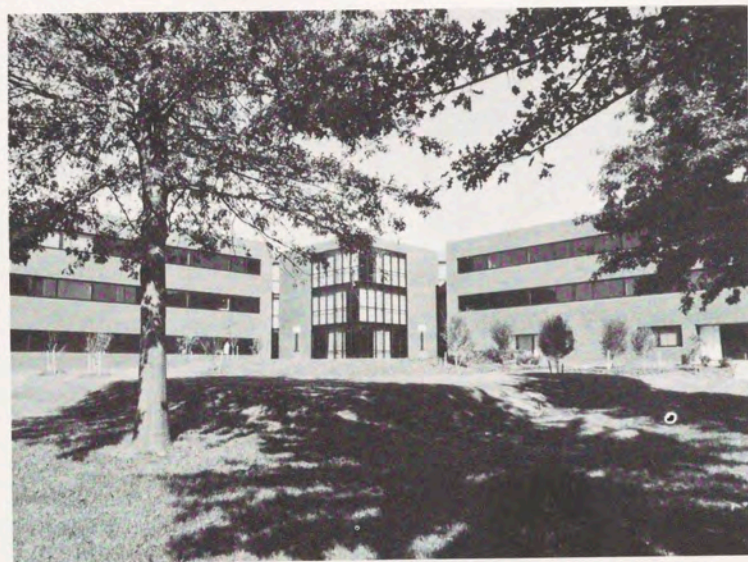

Our word in the world is Spelman. It is a women's word. It is spirited and genuine in origin. From the beginning, it took form in the minds of two women. These were women who believed in the freeing power of the mind—a power not limited by sex, race, or class.

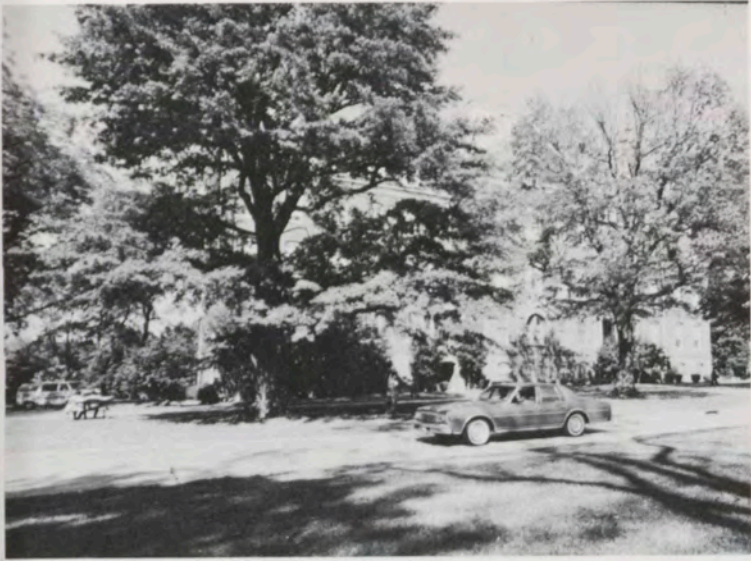

Spelman, thy name we praise
Standards and honor raise We'll ever faithful be Throughout eternity
May peace with thee abide
And God forever guide
Thy heights supreme and true Blessings to you.

A faded, sepia-toned photograph of a classical building with columns, surrounded by trees and a car in the foreground. The building features several tall, white columns supporting a portico. The scene is set outdoors with large, leafy trees in the background and a paved area in the foreground where a car is partially visible on the right. The overall tone is nostalgic and historical.

Through years of toil and pain
May thy dear walls remain
Beacons of heavenly light
Undaunted by the fight;
And when life's race is won Thy noble work is done
Oh, God forever bind
Our hearts to thine.

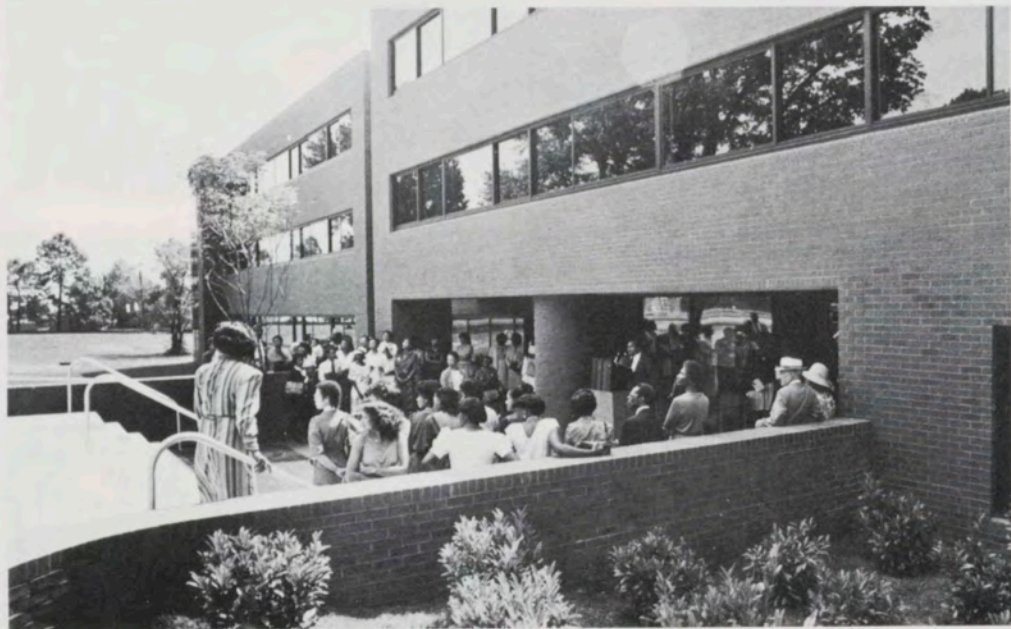

First they had the thought. Then, they gave it meaning by naming it.

For more than one hundred years, women have refined and delicately detailed this meaning. The meaning is unique. Its place is special among colleges.

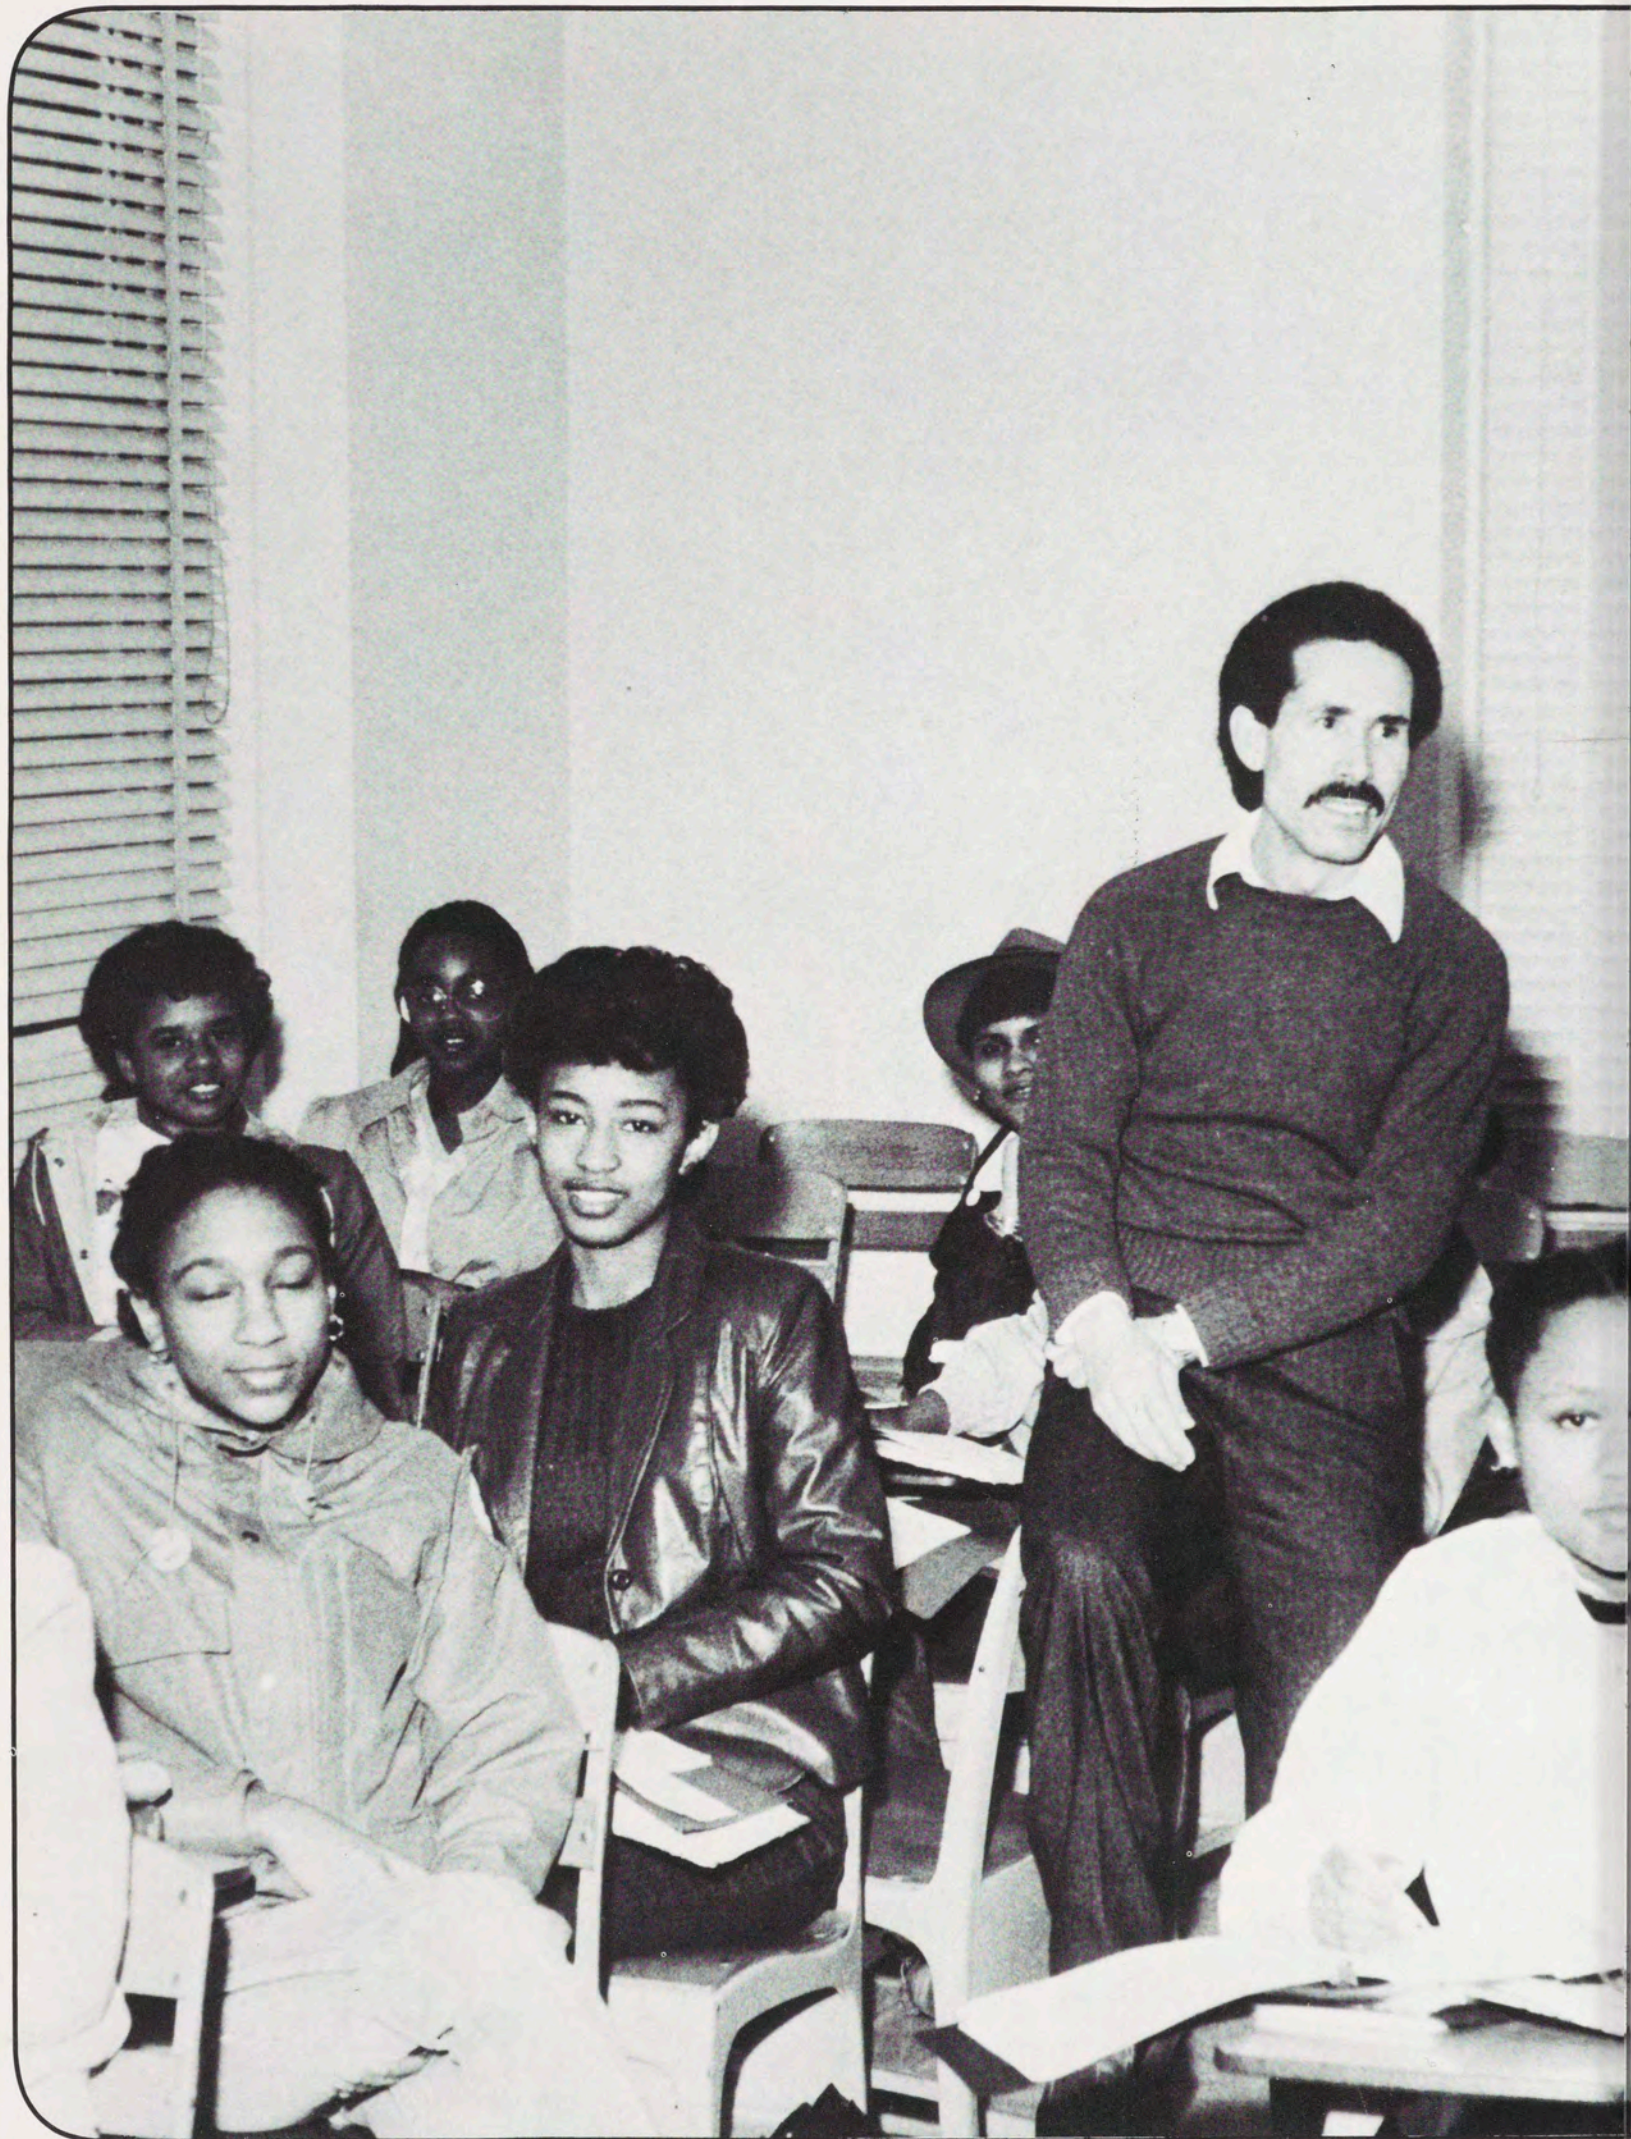

Spelman is an extraordinary experience—an experience OF, FOR, and ABOUT women.

We are immersed in this experience for WE are the SPIR-IT OF SPELMAN.

FACULTY & STAFF

Faculty, staff, administration—teaching, guiding, and advising. The faculty and staff of Spelman College shoulder multi-faceted responsibility. They serve as advisors and mentors as well as instructors throughout the college experience. They are a most important part of our lives.

Spelmanites are known to be some of the greatest achievers in the world. However, we would be less than great if it were not for those who guide us through developmental stages. We are fortunate to be placed under the tutelage of such a dedicated, capable staff—a staff dedicated to the enforcement of the SPIRIT of SPELMAN.

The Senior Class Officers

Dr. Stewart greets the senior class.

The Class of 1984 enjoys campus life . . .

and the Mr. Senior pageant.

Don't look so sad . . .

Graduation is only around the corner!!

To the Class of 1985

We give the challenge to:

Create paths that others will be proud to follow

Honor the standards that Spelman holds dear

Alleviate apathy ignorance, and jealousy

Learn patience and understanding when dealing with others

Lend your services to mankind

Ensure peace and tranquility within yourself

Nurture and give guidance to those in need

Gain a lesson from each mistake that you make

Ensure a future for Spelman College by meeting all of your

CHALLENGES

TIME AND TIDE

Time would not wait on me,
I asked it to;
I was so far away and wandering fast, and when I got to where it was,
time had passed.
I hurried out to meet the tide and tell it all that time had done and cried that it should wait on me, but it went on,
and when I looked at where I'd seen the tide, it too had gone.

group effort to “save our Black Schools.”

At Spelman, there is a familial feeling. There is the SPIRIT of togetherness though we are not all familiar with each other. Through our common denominator, which is Spelman, we come together as one entity and as one unit.

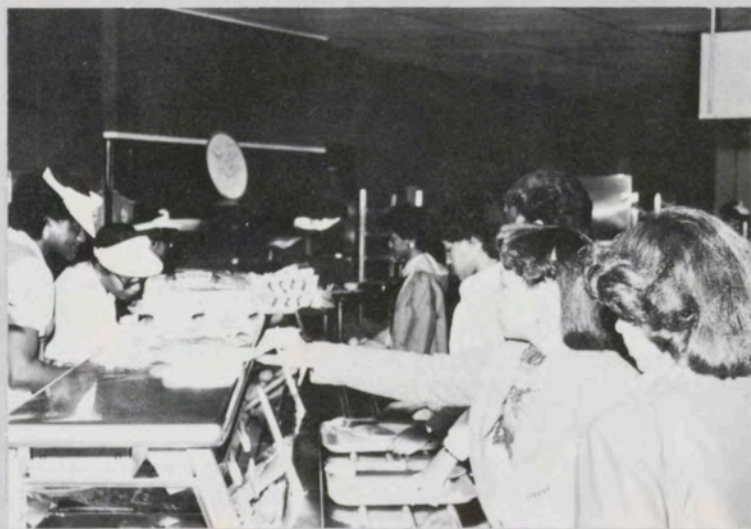

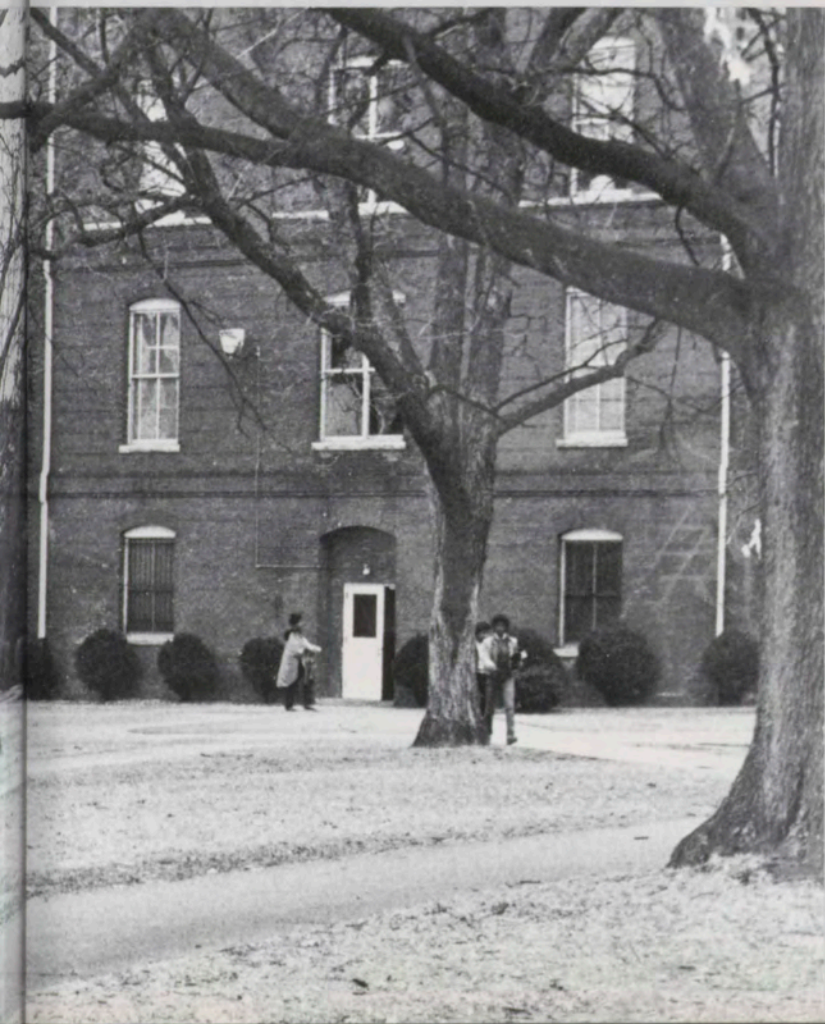

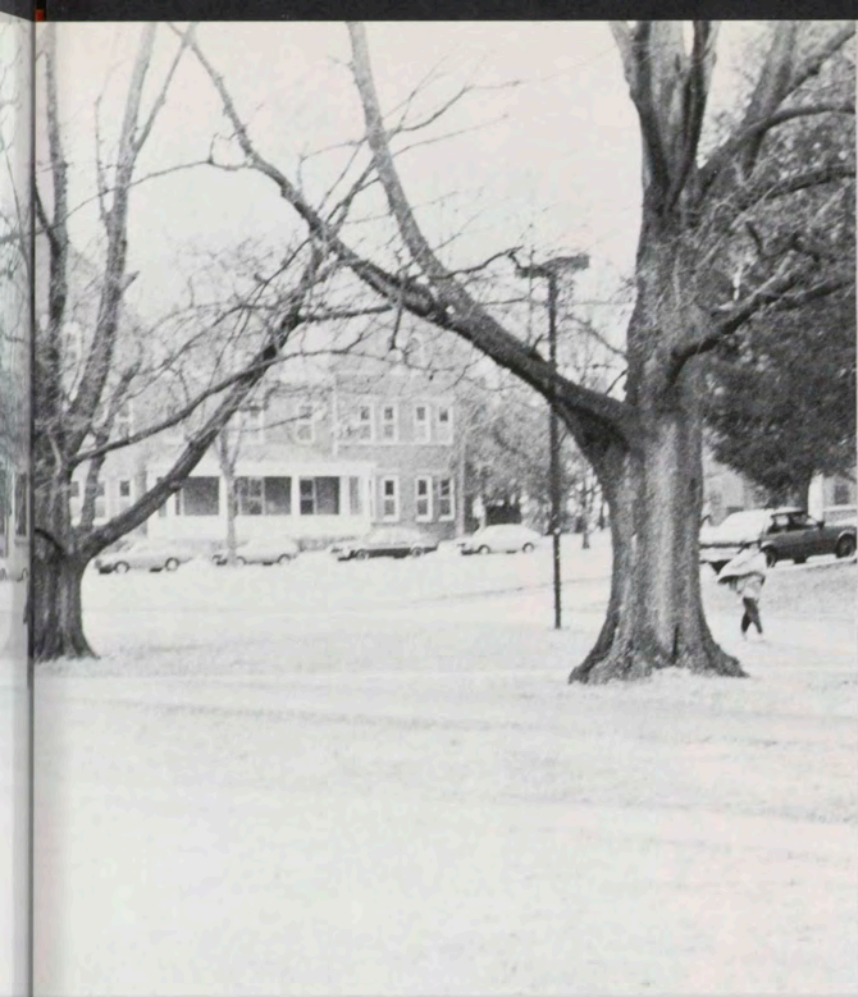

Working together we, the women of Spelman College, create an aura of distinction from which stems the SPIRIT of excellence. We are confident that we are the leaders of tomorrow; therefore, we strive to be the best.

The SPIRIT of togetherness and the SPIRIT of excellence are compounded into the SPIRIT of SPELMAN. The two come together to enforce the belief that in unity there is strength. We shall put this strength to good use as we formulate our futures. We realize that through us the SPIRIT of SPELMAN shall come to life.

Crystal, Myla, and Connie are presented to the crowd from the field.

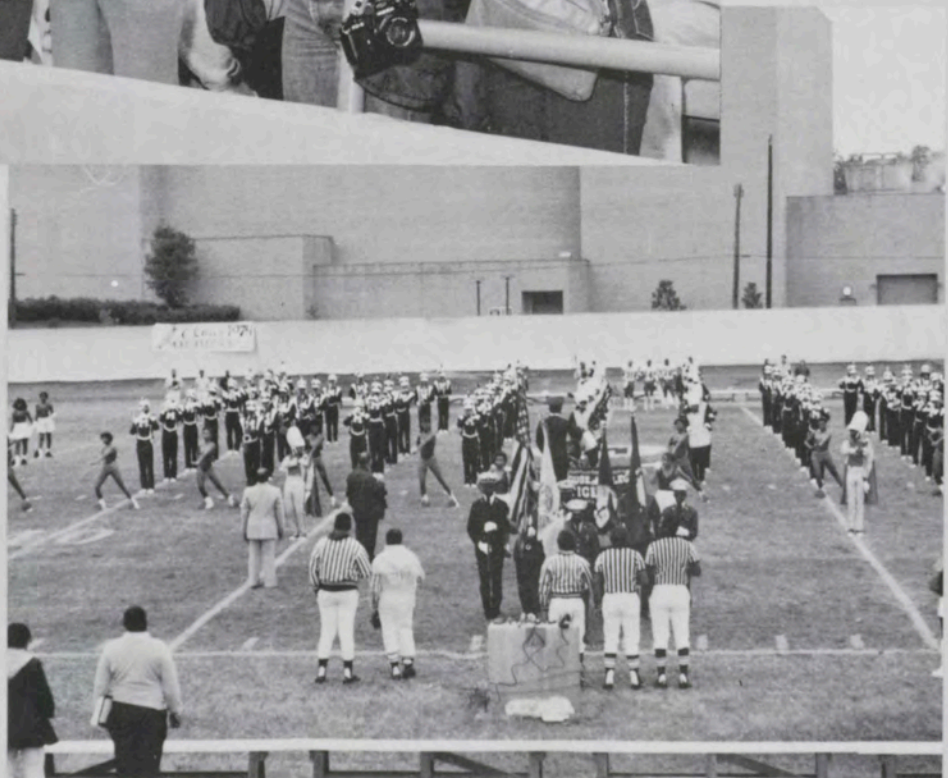

Cheerleaders add spirit to the homecoming festivities.

Homecoming '83 is enjoyed by the spectators.

During half-time, music from the band adds to the excitement.

The game ball is presented to Crystal by Morehouse's team captain Barry Wade.

Crystal radiantly beams from the field during the half-time highlights.

The warmth and grace that Myla and Connie exemplified put the finishing touches on a wonderful afternoon.

STUDENT LIFE

Student life, organizations, activities—are they necessary? Yes! Student life is more than just being involved in organizations, activities, and academics; it is the development of one's total personality.

At Spelman, there are activities to fulfill the needs of every member of the student body, whether they be spiritual, mental, or physical. These activities build pride, culture, and social awareness.

Student life at Spelman is for the personal enjoyment and enhancement of every student, for this is the SPIRIT OF SPELMAN.

SPELMAN COLLEGE
ATLANTA, GEORGIA

Founder's Day Activities

Founder's Day 1984 marked our 103rd year of existence as an excellent institution for women. The Founder's Day Fair was held on the Saturday of Founder's Day Weekend in celebration of the special event. The fair was composed of booths and activities set up by various organizations.

Spelman
Women Speak

The following pages are a reflection of the literary talent of Spelman College. The students of Spelman seep their innermost thoughts and feelings into their writings, thus these writings are the epitome of the SPIRIT of the Spelman woman.

CLOUD

So

So many
So many unfinished poems
In my soul.
Fragments blown, tossed
By the shifting winds.
Weightless words surrender
To the powerful air.

So

So many
So many unfinished songs.
Melodies change midstream Pitched by wayward currents
That undulate them
Helplessly back to the shore.

So

So
So many poems
Cast into the sky
Only to find they had no wings

So

So
So many songs Set afloat
Only to return unmeasured, Unsung.

But just as Air and Water Secretly join to form a Cloud
Will my words and my music
Someday rise, join,

And they will rain showers on you.

—Valerie C. Jordan

Many faces of anticipation
Removed by summer from manipulation.
Quandry's of the days gone by,
Easily removed by adamant sighs.

The first day has finally come
As we approach the campus one by one.
Fears quickly build inside of us,
Slowly forming an immense feeling of Trust.

We are taking a new step in life,
That will aid us in our future rife.
Majoring and minoring in different fields,
That will be executed as our worthy shields.

Some of us will toil in vain
By an uncontrollable obsession with feign, Disparaged by the ones who skillfully attain.
Whose scholarly achievements are always another Gain.

Although we have left many friends behind
We are the beginning of a new womankind.
So when we look back to where it all began,
We will remember joyous days at Spelman.

—Marilyn Jennifer Aldridge

NIGHT

As I sit staring out of my window, I peer into the Blackness of the Night.
It's darkness is rich, full, and deep echoing the sweet familiar sounds of silence.

—Stephanie Mitchell

CONTEMPLATION

Here I sit becoming acquainted with boredom as we wait
and watch the listful blue of daybreak disappear.
Every second slowly ticking by and I think one minute more . . . as each minute passes.
Until night time comes . . . and this day has ended

—Mitzi Renee Slack

Time has slipped out of my hands,
I once loved you.
My how old I'm getting.
You once loved me,
All I remember are memories.
What did we laugh at?
Why did I cry?
I remember shedding tears for you
But yesterday was so long ago . . .
I remember telling you goodbye.
I remember saying I'll wait for you.
My, how time has slipped out of my hand.
I've started a new life, you know.
Here he comes now.
I remember,
I once loved you.
Now all I have are memories.

—Debbie Marable

Long Distance

It is so hard maintaining this long distance
relationship;
hissing static replaces the Messages,
our precious Words.
Voices echo vaguely until vagueness becomes Inaudible.

It is so hard maintaining this long distance
relationship;
the lines constrict until Ideas are strangled, reduced to Pain.
Feelings so deep diffuse into Air, never reaching the Heart.

All I can say is

It is so hard maintaining this long distance
relationship . . .

And we are only seconds apart.

Valerie C. Jordan

Amtrak of the Ghetto

All aboard, all aboard
Last chance to ride
the Amtrak of the ghetto . . .
Shake, rattle and roll high above the city streets thru the backyards of dwellers on raggedy
"L" trains at high speeds Packed with bodies and odors of week old funk, week old liquor

Check out that panoramic view from the stained glass windows painted with greasy curl activators of black city life as you depart the picturesque downtown area sleep to the clackity clacks of the trackity tracks on the converted pullman car with the shut of an eye
. . . All aboard, all aboard
Last chance to ride
the Amtrak of the ghetto
But don't fret
if you miss this one another will be along and another and another all with the same destination . . .

Diane M. Bell

ON THE THIN LINE

I've closed forty upon forty doors in my heart and hid from you behind them, and yet when I fall asleep at night you steal the key and walk right into my dreams.

The pictures of you were all burned last year, but yet the best and worst pictures of you are still burned upon my mind.

When time was ours it moved much too fast, but now it moves ever so slowly.

First remembering and then—remembering not

Then wanting and then—wanting not

And then loving, oh yes loving . . . and then—loving not—And then loving all over again

Yes life is hell—On the thin line.

—Khadija C. Cabey

Loneliness is an empty word, with no footholes or branches to cling to. The hole is not deep if you believe in God, and trust in his wisdom. Although you know He is always on your side the inner heartache one feels because of the lack of physical and emotional being is worse. The heartache stems from fear to express oneself to others, because of the years of rejection that have happen, the lack of security that grows to engulf the few of us. Loneliness is an empty word, the knot has slipped, the weekend never comes; the smile is upstaged by tears. It happens to a few, but to that few, the courage to go on, my son, should be taken one step at a time. Loneliness is an empty word, but it grows into an essay with a little thought.

—Tonya Ryker

let's get together,

so we can share thoughts.

sometimes i want to know what you are thinking
'cause i want to think with you . . .

i want to enjoy your fantasies, illusions and be involved in your most beautiful imaginings—

oh yes—let our thoughts intermingle, dance,
and make music
together.

let's make our thoughts synchronic, concurrently colliding and exploding into eloquent verbal expression and subtle yet expressive feeling.

can i share with you your thoughts and will you share mine with me?

—joni johnson

Some felt that it couldn't be done; yet, I take pride in presenting a completed edition of Reflections for the year 1984.

A great deal of perseverance and dedication has gone into the production of what I feel is a very successful yearbook. Successful because it will bring forth an inundation of memories from the year, 1984.

I am somewhat biased in saying that this is a special edition of Reflections. This bias is the result of the long hours and hard work put forth in an effort to complete the book.

Special thanks is given to Mrs. Sadie Allen for "pushing it through;" Charlie J. Moreland for his patience; and to Spelman for her faith in me to produce an exemplification of pride in her name.
